

Zip Design wants a full-time Mid-weight Designer

Zip is looking for a full time Mid-weight Designer to start in May 2018.

We are a London based creative studio. We provide innovative design & art direction that connects you with your audience.

Zip began over 20 years ago, our roots are in the music industry having created some iconic work for a variety of artists and bands. Our thirst for producing imaginative design ideas has lead us on to working with some brilliant clients in very diverse sectors here in the UK and more globally.

Who we are looking for

Zip is currently looking for a designer with a broad skill set. This role requires someone with energy and drive to work collaboratively with a hands-on team.

The successful candidate will have a minimum of 3 years experience in the creative industry. You will have an exciting portfolio with a large range of media, from print, digital and emerging formats. You will have a love of exploring new processes, technology mixed with real passion for creative thinking.

Skills

You will have strong design and typographic skills with extensive knowledge of Adobe CC InDesign / Illustrator / Photoshop. You will have excellent knowledge about design for web and digital media with any coding ability a bonus. Our ideal contender will be a naturally charged individual, a tea drinking music lover. Most importantly a talented designer not afraid to get their hands dirty and muck in with the team.

Salary

Dependent on experience
